Rawlins earns scholarship

During the June 5 Seneca School graduation ceremony, the Seneca School Foundation awarded its fifth annual Seneca Logger Memorial Scholarship to Reed Rawlins, an outstanding member of this year's graduating eighth-grade class.

Reed is the son of Pete and Wendi Rawlins of Canyon Creek.

To apply for this scholarship, candidates must meet certain minimum requirements. They must then submit a standard application form and write a 500-word essay on a topic established each year by the selection committee.

The conclusion of the process requires each candidate to undergo an interview with the entire selection committee.

Sam Seebart, a 1959 graduate of the Seneca School and president of the Seneca School Foundation, presented a certificate, representing a $500 scholarship, to Reed. The money will be go into a savings account for use once Reed has successfully completed the first semester in the college of his choice.
